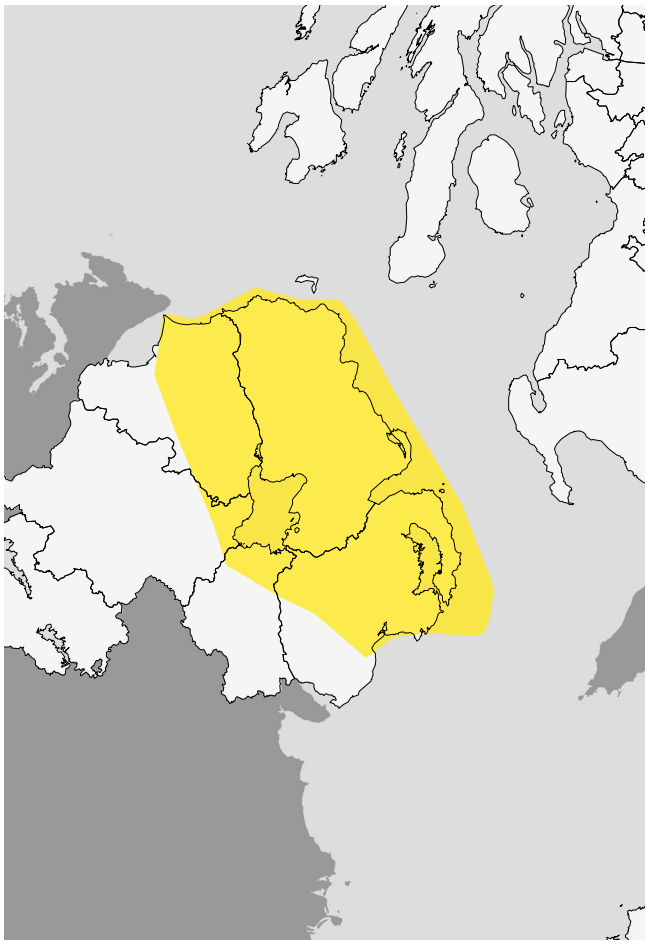
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
03:00 Wed 13 Jan 2021 and
09:00 Thu 14 Jan 2021



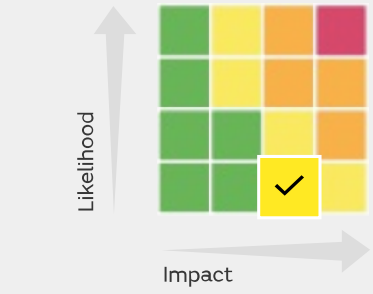
Heavy rain is expected to affect Northern Ireland, bringing some transport disruption.

What to expect

- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Where flooding occurs, there is a chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and flooding will lead to difficult driving conditions and perhaps some road closures
- There is a slight chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

Spells of heavy rain are expected to move across Northern Ireland early on Wednesday, persisting for much of the day, finally clearing on Thursday morning. 20-25 mm is expected quite widely but some parts could see 40 to 60 mm, this most likely across northern parts of Antrim, leading to some flooding.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
